Chapter 1 by Grace VandeWalle

Waves crashed against the ocean shore, a white foam rising up with each wave. The ocean continued to reach out to the girl who sat on the shore, but missed her each time. She came here to think. Think about everything from school drama to... well to her best friend's death. The girl picked up a rock, squeezing it in her palm. "Why her? Why did you have to kill her?" She throws the rock as hard as she can into the ocean, the splash oddly satisfying. But now wasn't a time to play. Now was a time to think and reflect on the facts.
